Prelude: O God Beyond All Praising by Christ Church Bellingham (such an angelic voice was the way to start today's service)

Call To Worship, Psalm 103:1-8, p. 482

Leader: Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and all that is within me,
bless his holy name.

All: Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and do not forget all his benefits—
who forgives all your iniquity,
who heals all your diseases,

Leader: who redeems your life from the Pit,
who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy,

All: who satisfies you with good as long as you live
so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

Leader: The LORD works vindication
and justice for all who are oppressed.
He made known his ways to Moses,
his acts to the people of Israel.

All: The LORD is merciful and gracious,
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

Children's Message: Getting bent out of shape

Hymn: This is the Day by Maranatha

This is the day,
this is the day
That the Lord has made,
that the Lord has made
We will rejoice,
we will rejoice
And be glad in it,
and be glad in it

This is the day
that the Lord has made
We will rejoice
and be glad in it
This is the day,
this is the day
That the Lord has made

If you have a favorite hymn you'd like to include in our worship service, just send it along and I'll look for a good place for it.

A Prayer of Joys and Concerns:

The response to "The LORD is merciful and gracious" is "slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love."

Let us recite the Lord's Prayer together:

Our Father who art in heaven hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

[For next week, please feel free to send me your joys & concerns and I'll include them in our prayers: minister@bccnh.org or call/text (857) 259-7269.]

Hymn: Bless the Lord by Harvest Ministries and Kevin Inafuku

Scripture Reading: Luke 13:10-17, p. 848

Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, "Woman, you are set free from your ailment." When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, "There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day." But the Lord answered him and said, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?" When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

Reflection on the Scripture:

Hymn: Come Thou Font of Every Blessing by Reawaken Hymns

Come, Thou Fount of every blessing,
Tune my heart to sing Thy grace
Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
Call for songs of loudest praise

Teach me some melodious sonnet,
Sung by flaming tongues above
Praise the Mount, I'm fixed upon it,
Mount of thy redeeming love

Here I raise my Ebenezer;
Here by Thy great help I've come;
And I hope, by Thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home.

Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed His precious blood;

Oh that day when freed from sinning
I shall see thy lovely face
Clothed then in the blood washed linen
How I'll sing thy wondrous grace

Come my Lord no longer tarry
Take my ransomed soul away
Send thine angels now to carry
Me to realms of endless day

Oh to grace how great a debtor,
Daily I'm constrained to be
Let Thy goodness, like a fetter,
Bind my wandering heart to Thee

Prone to wander, Lord I feel it,
Prone to leave the God I love
Here's my heart, Oh take and seal it,
Seal it for Thy courts above

Postlude: Bless the Lord, O My Soul \(Psalm 103\) by Sovereign Grace Music

Here ends our worship, now let our service begin.

Notes:

Psalm 103

This is perhaps the best-known and best-loved of all the hymns of praise in the Psalter.

Verses 1-2 are a summons to praise. It begins with the self reminding the self of the fact that all of life must be finally referred to God's goodness. The term rendered "benefits" might be translated as "payoffs," the rewards and punishments God reliably gives.

Verses 3-6 tell the tale: "forgives, heals, redeems, crowns, satisfies." We should notice that in verse 6, we have what seems to be a last element in the list which is often left outside the recital: "works." This last verb is a reminder to us that we need to always keep the goal of justice visible.

In verses 7-8, it is as though, when Israel thinks of such things listed in verses 3-5, Moses inevitably comes to mind.

Verses 9-14 announce that God's way of working and standard of judgment is not like any we expect. We may expect enduring anger, but we do not receive it. So now we see that the "payoffs" of God are not exacting, but stunningly generous. The ground for newness is not in our neediness, but in the will of the loving parent.

Verses 15-18 complete the contrast. We are surprised because we expect God to judge according to calculating human standards. God is utterly unlike humankind, which is transitory and unreliable. Apart from all of those norms, God is marked by steadfast love and righteousness, so long as the partner keeps covenant.

It is no wonder that the concluding summons to praise is expansive (vv. 19-22). The psalm began by calling the self. But now it is all of creation, who are needed to adequately assert who our unutterable God is. Notice the psalm is not specific. The key to this discernment of God is "steadfast love."

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me bless God's holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and do not forget all God's benefits. Amen.

Household Prayer: Evening

Healing God, you long to set me free from bondage so that I may serve you in perfect freedom: forgive the ways in which I have been unable to stand in your freedom this day, and strengthen me this night that in the morning I may arise in the support and goodness of your love. Amen.

Questions for Reflection

The writer of Hebrews says that God is a "consuming fire" (Heb. 12:29). Why is this good news?

Daily Awareness Reflection²

At the end of the day, I've been asking myself the following questions. I jot down the answers and ask them again the next evening. I've found it helps me to remain centered as well as increasing my awareness of God in my life. It takes about 10 minutes.

1. Slow down. Stop. Prepare yourself to pray by becoming aware of the love with which God looks on you ...
2. Note the gifts God has given you today. Give thanks to God for them ...
3. Ask God that this be a time of special grace and revelation ...
4. With God, review the day. Look at the stirrings of your heart, your thoughts, and your choices as the day progressed. Which have been of God? Which have not? What does God want to say to you about both? ...
5. Ask for forgiveness for failures/omissions, for healing from their effects ...
6. Look forward to the following day, and plan concretely with God how to live it according to God's desire for your life ...
