

Prelude

Call To Worship, Psalm 121, p. 498

A Song of Ascents.

Leader: I lift up my eyes to the hills—
from where will my help come?

All: My help comes from the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

Leader: He will not let your foot be moved;
he who keeps you will not slumber.
He who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

All: The LORD is your keeper;
the LORD is your shade at your right hand.
The sun shall not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.

Leader: The LORD will keep you from all evil;
he will keep your life.

All: The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in from this time on and for evermore.

RESPONSE: #820 Threefold Amen \(Danish\)

Children's Message: Measuring God's Love

Hymn: #552 My Faith Looks Up to Thee

If you have a favorite hymn you'd like to include in our worship service, just send it along and I'll look for a good place for it.

A Prayer of Joys and Concerns:

[For next week, please feel free to send me your joys & concerns and I'll include them in our prayers: minister@bccnh.org or call/text (857) 259-7269.]

Blessing of the New Chalice

In December, 2022, United Methodist Bishop Sudarshana Devadhar retired. He auctioned off a number of chalices to raise money for the UMC Clergy Respite Fund. The deacons participated in the auction, placing the winning bid for this lovely blue ceramic chalice.

Let us pray a prayer attributed to St. Therese

Loving God, to you I raise my whole being, a vessel emptied of self.

Accept Lord, my emptiness, and so fill me with yourself,

Your Light, your Love, your Life,

that these precious gifts may radiate through me and over-flow the chalice of my heart

into the hearts of all with whom I come in contact this day, revealing unto them the beauty of your Joy and Wholeness and the Serenity of your Peace which nothing can destroy.

Amen.

Hymn: #212 What Wondrous Love Is This

Invitation to Holy Communion, reflecting on Psalm 121¹

Leader: We lift up our eyes to grandma's pantry and the food pantry, to sacristy and IV pole, grocery bag and take-out,
looking for what sustains us.

All: God sustains us with the gifts of earth and sky,
with parable words to guide our decisions,
and human helpers to hold our sorrows.

Leader: God does not sleep through our prayers or slumber when we weep or complain.

All: God is our host, giving us a true meal,
for the hungers of daytime work
the wanderings of the night,
and even when danger and loss surprises us.

Leader: We have bread and cup strength when we go out, bread and cup comfort when we come in,

All: a sacrament of life as real as daily food,
as holy as the small, sweet gift of Holy Communion.

Words of Remembering

Prayer of Consecration

Sharing of the Elements

Leader: Let us receive the gift of God, the Bread of Heaven.

All: We come to Christ in this and every bread we share.
(Eat the bread)

Leader: Let us receive the gift of God, the Cup of Blessing.

All: We come to Christ in this and every cup we share.
(Drink from the cup)

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Leader: In thanksgiving for this sustenance on our Lenten journey, we claim all stories of Jesus Christ as our own, a path of healing and love toward the cross and the ever-present truth of the resurrection. Let us pray ...

All: O Holy One, we come to you with our weariness and hope. We thank you for the rest and strength of this Communion so that we may re-turn our tables to service in the world and hear your words of guidance every day and every night through Christ who has taught us to pray, saying ...

Let us recite the Lord's Prayer together:

Our Father who art in heaven hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Hymn: #224 Ask Ye What Great Thing I Know

Scripture Reading: John 3:1-17, pp. 863-864

Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, 'Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God.' Jesus answered him, 'Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above.' Nicodemus said to him, 'How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?' Jesus answered, 'Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, "You must be born from above." The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.' Nicodemus said to him, 'How can these things be?' Jesus answered him, 'Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things?

'Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

'For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

'Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

Announcements

A Prayer of Confession to Send us Back Out into the World

Leader: We cannot earn God's grace or favor.
It comes to us, not as something owed,
but as a gift freely given.
Confident in God's love for us,
even when we are ungodly,
we confess our sins in faith.

All: Gracious God, we come before you in need of forgiveness and grace.
You call us to trust in you completely,
but we do not.

We are timid and fearful as we follow your lead.
We justify our actions and words,
though we know they are not what you require.
We struggle to understand the new life Christ offers, preferring old habits to risky change.

Forgive us, we pray.
Help us to be born again into the life of Christ,
trusting that you have included us by grace in the family of faith.

Leader: Friends, God is for us and not against us!
For that very reason,
God sent the Son into the world
not to condemn the world,
but that the world might be saved through him.
Believe the good news,

All: in Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

by his counsels guide, uphold you, with his sheep securely fold you; God be with you till we meet again."](#)

Postlude

Here ends our worship, now let our service begin.

Notes:

Psalm 121

This psalm, along with Psalm 23, is our best-loved psalm. It is a song for pilgrims under way to Jerusalem who are passing through ominous terrain. The hills are filled with threat and danger that evoke the question of “help” (v. 1).

The simple, direct, unambiguous answer in verse 2 is that God is the single, necessary, all-sufficient source of help who will give protection. As creator of “heaven and earth,” moreover, God is surely sovereign over “the hills,” even if they seem full of threat.

In the following (vv. 3-8), God is credited with three characteristics: (a) God protects the path of the pilgrims; (b) God is vigilant and does not sleep; and (c) God is endlessly awake and attentive. God is the keeper, the one who guards, protects, preserves, and keeps safe. Thus, in verse 4 the questions of verse 1 is fully answered.

In verses 5-8, more statements are made concerning God, only now God is explicitly named four times. Verse 5 reiterates the primary claim of verses 3-4: God is “keeper.” God is like a shade tree to protect travelers from the heat of the sun; the poetic parallel of the moon is added, for one does not need to be protected from the moon.

From the specificity of sun and moon, verses 7-8 make a more general claim. Now God protects the traveler from “all evil,” from every possible threat. It is God who keeps one’s life safe, even in dangerous circumstances. The traveler is safe departing and arriving, and all along the way.

The psalm voices a simple, direction confidence in God. The term “keep” (along with “help”) governs the poetry. The recurrence of the term “keep” attests to the abiding, complete trustworthiness of the presence of God in every season of risk.

Household Prayer: Morning²

Loving God, you have given me the gift of this new day, and you send me out to live it fully and well. Help me to be attentive to your direction and leading. If you should call me to go in some direction, give me courage to try this new thing. If you present me with a mysterious truth or grace, help me to understand, or to seek understanding, with a sense of wonder and faith. Whatever this day may hold, I trust that you will keep me in all my comings and goings. In your Son's name, I pray. Amen.

Household Prayer: Evening

Gracious God, as the evening comes and the light fades, I look for you even in the shadows. Your love and protection stay with me through the night hours, and I rest in your promises. For the day as it has been, I give you thanks. For the gift of rest, I offer a hymn of praise. You love me and the whole world so greatly that you offer us salvation. After a night of rest, bring me into the light of a new day. In gratitude, I pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

Questions for Reflection

Why does Jesus instruct the disciples to keep quiet about what they had seen “until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead” (Matt. 17:9)?

Daily Awareness Reflection³

At the end of the day, I've been asking myself the following questions. I jot down the answers and ask them again the next evening. I've found it helps me to remain centered as well as increasing my awareness of God in my life. It takes about 10 minutes.

1. Slow down. Stop. Prepare yourself to pray by becoming aware of the love with which God looks on you ...
2. Note the gifts God has given you today. Give thanks to God for them ...
3. Ask God that this be a time of special grace and revelation ...
4. With God, review the day. Look at the stirrings of your heart, your thoughts, and your choices as the day progressed. Which have been of God? Which have not? What does God want to say to you about both? ...
5. Ask for forgiveness for failures/omissions, for healing from their effects ...
6. Look forward to the following day, and plan concretely with God how to live it according to God's desire for your life ...
