Prelude: Bethlehem, of noblest cities by The Gesualdo Six

Call To Worship, Psalm 72:1-7, 12-14

Leader: Give the king your justice, O God, and your righteousness to a king's son.
May he judge your people with righteousness,
and your poor with justice.

All: May the mountains yield prosperity for the people, and the hills, in righteousness.
May he defend the cause of the poor of the people,
give deliverance to the needy,
and crush the oppressor.

Leader: May he live while the sun endures,
and as long as the moon, throughout all generations.
May he be like rain that falls on the mown grass,
like showers that water the earth.

All: In his days may righteousness flourish and peace abound, until the moon is no more.

Leader: For he delivers the needy when they call,
the poor and those who have no helper.
He has pity on the weak and the needy,
and saves the lives of the needy.

All: From oppression and violence he redeems their life;
and precious is their blood in his sight.

RESPONSE: #820 Threefold Amen \(Danish\)

Children's Message: *Where should we look for Jesus now?

Hymn: Wise Men Three by St. John's Community Church

Wise men three, clever are we studied in astronomy.
Saw this star, in the east,
didn't know where it would lead us.

Wise men three, all agree,
here's a great discovery.

Tell us please, where can we
find the baby king Jesus?

Wise men three, all agree,
here's a great discovery.

Tell us please, where can we
find the baby king Jesus?

Or if we don't feel like jumping around as much

Hymn: Brightest and Best of the Sons of the Morning by Divine Hymns

Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid;
Star of the East, the horizon adoring,
Guide where our infant redeemer is laid.

Cold on his cradle the dewdrops are shining;
Low lies His head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore Him in slumber reclining,
Maker and Monarch and Savior of all!

Say, shall we yield Him, in costly devotion,
Fragrance of Edom and offerings divine?
Gems of the mountains and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?

Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
vainly with gifts would His favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid;
Star of the East, the horizon adoring,
Guide where our infant redeemer is laid.

A Prayer of Joys and Concerns:

Let us recite the Lord's Prayer together:

Our Father who art in heaven hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

For next week, please feel free to send me your joys & concerns and I'll include them in our prayers: [minister@bccnh.org or call/text (857) 259-7269.]

Hymn: We Three Kings by Reawaken Hymns

We three kings of Orient are Bearing gifts, we traverse afar Field and fountain, moor and mountain
Following yonder star.

O Star of wonder, star of night
Star with royal beauty bright
Westward leading, still proceeding
Guide us to thy perfect light

Born a King on Bethlehem's plain
Gold I bring to crown Him again
King forever, ceasing never Over us all to reign

O Star of wonder, star of night
Star with royal beauty bright
Westward leading, still proceeding
Guide us to thy perfect light

Frankincense to offer have I Incense owns a Deity nigh
Prayer and praising, all men raising Worship Him, God most high

O Star of wonder, star of night
Star with royal beauty bright
Westward leading, still proceeding
Guide us to thy perfect light

Myrrh is mine, its bitter perfume
Breathes of life of gathering gloom
Sorrow, sighing, bleeding, dying
Sealed in the stone-cold tomb

O Star of wonder, star of night
Star with royal beauty bright
Westward leading, still proceeding
Guide us to thy perfect light

Glorious now behold Him arise
King and God and Sacrifice
Alleluia, Alleluia
Earth to heav'n replies

O Star of wonder, star of night
Star with royal beauty bright
Westward leading, still proceeding
Guide us to thy perfect light

Sacrament of Communion

Prayer of Confession

Minister: Isaiah proclaimed: Darkness shall cover the earth,
and thick darkness the peoples;
but the Lord will arise upon you,
and God's glory will appear over you.
Let us acknowledge the darkness in our lives,
repent of our sin,
and receive the light of God's mercy.

All: Merciful God, Light of the world, we confess that we have not resisted the darkness of sin.

You deliver the poor and the helpless,
but we have ignored their cry.
You take pity on the weak and the destitute,
but our hearts are hard in the face of their need.
You heal the wounded and save the oppressed but we have placed our trust in the callous violence of war.

Forgive us, we pray.
Awaken in us sincere repentance that we may shine with the light of your saving grace;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Minister: Beloved of God, thrill and rejoice in God's goodness.

All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Invitation to the Table

Minister: God be with you.

All: And also with you.

Minister: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to God.

Minister: Let us give thanks to God most high.

All: It is right to give thanks and praise.

Words of Consecration

Prayer of Thanksgiving

We give you thanks O God for having renewed and refreshed us with this sacrament of your love and for being present with us through Christ. We ask, O God, that our faith be strengthened and our love for one another be increased that we would be a true witness to your love. We ask it in the name of Christ our Lord. Amen

Hymn: Take Us Home By Another Way by Christopher Grundy

Spirit, take us home take us home by another way take us long way 'round the tyrants and their schemes. Give us strength to walk show us dreams of a better day and we'll pave the way with justice going home by another way.

The mountains and the hills made low the rough places made plain the tyrants thrown down from their thrones 'til only love remains.

Spirit, take us home take us home by another way take us long way 'round the tyrants and their schemes. Give us strength to walk show us dreams of a better day and we'll pave the way with justice going home by another way.

No offerings for billionaires to make them richer still bring all your frankincense and myrrh that the hungry may be filled

Spirit, take us home take us home by another way take us long way 'round the tyrants and their schemes. Give us strength to walk show us dreams of a better day and we'll pave the way with justice going home by another way.

So when the proud boys and the klan ask where the Christ child lies just tell 'em that you'll let them know next time you're passing by

Spirit, take us home take us home by another way take us long way 'round the tyrants and their schemes. Give us strength to walk show us dreams of a better day and we'll pave the way with justice going home by another way.

So, when things get tough and feet are tired we'll know it'll be okay. Cause we'll pave the way with justice going home by another way.

Scripture Reading: Isaiah 60:1-6, pp. 602-603

Arise, shine; for your light has come,
and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.

For darkness shall cover the earth,
and thick darkness the peoples;
but the LORD will arise upon you,
and his glory will appear over you.

Nations shall come to your light,
and kings to the brightness of your dawn.

Lift up your eyes and look around;
they all gather together, they come to you;
your sons shall come from far away,
and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms.

Then you shall see and be radiant;
your heart shall thrill and rejoice,
because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you,
the wealth of the nations shall come to you.

A multitude of camels shall cover you,

the young camels of Midian and Ephah;
all those from Sheba shall come.
They shall bring gold and frankincense,
and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

RESPONSE: #820 Threefold Amen (Danish)

Announcements

A Prayer to Send us Back Out into the World (a riff on Psalm 72)

Leader: Loving God you call us to leave our homes and lead the world, just as Jesus did, seeking justice for the poor and the voiceless. You urge us to travel to find his people. And you urge us to speak truth to those in positions of political power who do not care for those Jesus loved.

All: Prosperity comes when we care for everyone, when we make sure that no one is left behind. Jesus saw no separation between church and state, between the political and the religious, because it was just life. A life God offered everyone, that we all might find light in the darkness together.

Leader: A strong leader refreshes the community like water that feeds the growth of the earth. A strong leader creates things that endure, not just for a season, but for a long time.

All: May we recognize the kind of leadership that endures, that creates the environment for right relationships and abounding peace, that everyone can build on for generations.

Leader: May great leadership bring out the best of all of our gifts, that together we might offer something royal and religious and sacred.

All: May all those in power pay homage to God's call for justice and protection of the weakest among us.

Leader: God works through us to deliver those who are calling out for help, those who have no one to speak for them, to speak to them, to remember their needs as well as our own.

All: God works through us to save the lives of the weak and the needy, the lives of those who suffer from oppression and violence. Let us remember how precious they are to God and therefore to us.

Leader: Amen and

All: Amen.

Psalm 72

One of the Royal Psalms, Psalm 72 argues that the king has a responsibility to support and sustain the life of the poor and the marginal when they have no resources by which to sustain themselves. The psalm envisions a quite assertive, initiative-taking royal government on behalf of the poor and the needy.

The notion of justice and righteousness has to do with economic maintenance and with the maintenance of an independent judiciary that would not be merely an exploitative tool of the powerful. Thus, the verbs in verse 4, “defend, deliver, crush,” surely concern a viable court system in which the marginal can expect reliable redress from the rapaciousness of an acquisitive society.

The juxtaposition of verses 1-4 and 12-14 concerning care for the vulnerable by the regime and verses 5-7, 8-11, and 15-17 envisioning extravagant well-being for the regime form the contrast that makes the point of the psalm: care for the poor that becomes the basis for economic prosperity in the realm. The unstated but surely implied negative counterpoint is the recognition that neglect of the poor through economic indifference will inevitably lead to military failure and economic collapse.

But what human king or political leader has ever lived up to such expectations? Psalm 72 reminds us that while we cannot perfectly reflect the community creating justice that characterizes God’s purpose, we should also reject a self-indulgent refusal to attempt to bend public power toward genuine communal well-being.

Household Prayer: Morning<sup>1</sup>

Loving God, do not let my good intentions become a means of evil. Do not let my trust become cooperation with sin. Do not let my naiveté become an opportunity for wickedness. Make me prudent in acts of mercy, firm in my resistance to evil, and wise in my discernment of wrong, for the sake of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Household Prayer: Evening

Loving God, in the journey of life guide me by the star that leads to Jesus, that I may return to you transformed by his love. Amen.

Questions for Reflection

Warned in a dream of Herod's evil intentions, the magi "left for their own country by another road." What could it mean for you to take "another road" as the church concludes the celebrations of the Christmas season?

Daily Awareness Reflection<sup>2</sup>

At the end of the day, I've been asking myself the following questions. I jot down the answers and ask them again the next evening. I've found it helps me to remain centered as well as increasing my awareness of God in my life. It takes about 10 minutes.

1. Slow down. Stop. Prepare yourself to pray by becoming aware of the love with which God looks on you ...
2. Note the gifts God has given you today. Give thanks to God for them ...
3. Ask God that this be a time of special grace and revelation ...
4. With God, review the day. Look at the stirrings of your heart, your thoughts, and your choices as the day progressed. Which have been of God? Which have not? What does God want to say to you about both? ...
5. Ask for forgiveness for failures/omissions, for healing from their effects ...
6. Look forward to the following day, and plan concretely with God how to live it according to God's desire for your life ...
