Christ comes today to love us and to lead us.

<sup>1</sup> Today's Call to Worship, Advent Wreath Lighting, Prayer of Joys & Concerns and Prayer to Send Us Back Out into the World are from Brian Wren, Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany: Liturgies and Prayer for Public Worship (Louisville, KY: Westminster John Knox Press, 2008).

Lighting the Advent Wreath

The Advent wreath is shaped in a ring. It shows the circle of God's unbroken love. Each week we will invite a "family" to light the candles in the wreath. This week the Deacons will light the candles to bring us together in the warm light of God's love.

Lighter 1: The Gospel of Luke speaks about the future:
"There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars,
and on earth, distress among nations.
People will faint from fear and foreboding." (Luke 21:25-36)

Lighter 2: Because our world is full of fear and distress,
we light our first candle,
trusting that Christ is alive on earth
and that the Spirit of Christ lives among us.
(Light the first candle)

Lighter 1: Living Christ, give us faith to trust you.

All: We trust you, we love you, we praise you. Amen.

Hymn: Light of the World by Lauren Daigle

If you have a favorite hymn you'd like to include in our worship service, just send it along and I'll look for a good place for it.

Children's Message (for kids of all ages):

How do you charge your spiritual batteries.?

Lifting up Our Joys and Concerns:

The response at the end of each petition is Savior Christ, set us free.

For next week, please feel free to send me your joys & concerns and I'll include them in our prayers: [minister@bccnh.org or call/text (857) 259-7269.]

Let us pray the Lord's Prayer together:

Our Father who art in heaven hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Hymn: Hope is Here \(Joy to the World\) by Dan Macaulay

Joy to the World
The Lord is come
Let earth receive her King
Let every heart prepare Him room

(Chorus)
Heaven and nature singing
He is our new beginning
Can you hear?
Hope is here
Joy in a baby's birth
Heaven is flooding earth and
God is near
Hope is here

Joy to the World, the Savior reigns
Let men their songs employ
He comes to make His blessings flow

(Chorus)

And wonders of His love are on display
That the King would come for us
This changes everything

(Chorus)

Scripture Reading: Luke 21:25-36

'There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations confused by the roaring of the sea and the waves. People will faint from fear and foreboding of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see "the Son of Man coming in a cloud" with power and great glory. Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.'

Then he told them a parable: 'Look at the fig tree and all the trees; as soon as they sprout leaves you can see for yourselves and know that summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.'

'Be on guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day does not catch you unexpectedly, like a trap. For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man.'

Stewardship Witness: Megan King

Prayer of Dedication for the Gifts We've Been Given:

God of righteousness,
you have saved us from the worst the world can do and have promised to redeem the whole creation when Christ comes again

In faith and hope we offer our gifts of money and self,
that we may be part of what you are doing in the world even now,
as we watch for Christ's coming in glory. Amen.

Announcements

A Prayer to Send us Back Out into the World

Leader: Living Christ, Jesus of Nazareth,
Teacher and Friend, Savior and Lord,
we love you and long for your presence.

All: As we follow the story of your coming,
touch us by your Spirit,

Leader: that through people we know

All: and through people we have yet to meet,
we may hear your voice
and heed your call.

Leader: In your name we pray.

All: Amen.

Household Prayer: Morning<sup>2</sup>

Thank you for this new day to sing your praise and watch for signs of your kingdom. By your Spirit, let me abound in love for you and your children, that in living and loving I may point to your coming reign. In the name of Jesus, I pray. Amen.

Household Prayer: Evening

Thank you for the signs of your coming reign, and for the power of your saving love. Bless all those whom I met today, and strengthen their hope in your power and grace. Now as I close my eyes, I relinquish all anxieties and fears, trusting in your providence and mercy. Amen.

Questions for Reflection

Even in the midst of trouble and turmoil, God allows us glimpses of the kingdom to come. What signs of promise do you see that bolster your hope in a new heaven and a new earth?

Daily Awareness Reflection<sup>3</sup>

At the end of the day, I've been asking myself the following questions. I jot down the answers and ask them again the next evening. I've found it helps me to remain centered as well as increasing my awareness of God in my life. It takes about 10 minutes.

1. Slow down. Stop. Prepare yourself to pray by becoming aware of the love with which God looks on you ...
2. Note the gifts God has given you today. Give thanks to God for them ...
3. Ask God that this be a time of special grace and revelation ...
4. With God, review the day. Look at the stirrings of your heart, your thoughts, and your choices as the day progressed. Which have been of God? Which have not? What does God want to say to you about both? ...
5. Ask for forgiveness for failures/omissions, for healing from their effects ...
6. Look forward to the following day, and plan concretely with God how to live it according to God's desire for your life ...

We're not going to order individual flowers this year in case everything has to be changed at the last minute.

The Brookline food pantry is now open on Tuesdays & Thursdays from 10-2:00 for drop-offs only. There is a list on the Brookline Food Pantry's Facebook page that is being updated as items are needed. In addition to Market Basket gift cards, this week, they're looking for:

Spam	Coffee
Juice and juice boxes	Pet food
Canned carrots	Detergent
Rice or noodle sides

If you know of anyone who could use some help from the Food Pantry, please let Rebecca or Amy know. We sense there's more need in the community than is currently picking up food.

Non-perishables can be dropped off at Brookline Town Hall (downstairs near the Town Clerk's Office), at the Brookline Post Office, or at the Cozy Tae Cart any time those places are open.

As always, perishable items such as bread, cheese, butter, eggs, meats, and milk can be donated during open pantry hours: Tues and Thurs, 10am - 2pm.
