

This week we'll be trying something different. The on-line worship service is posted on YouTube with my regular reflection in it. In addition, we'll have a Zoom worship service, where we'll celebrate communion. We'll also go through the rest of the service together, replacing my reflection with an interactive small group reflection on the Scripture (sort of like when we were in the sanctuary and I invited you to break into small groups). I'll frame the small group discussion and then we'll get back together afterwards. For those of you who have wanted to worship together on-line, we'll be doing that this weekend.

For those participating in the Zoom worship service, please prepare food for yourself and those with you as if it were a celebration of the unexpected gift of Christ's presence. It may be a slice or roll of bread, a corn tortilla, Naan, or rice cake and a cup of juice — perhaps grape or cranberry — or wine, with or without alcohol, and it may be closer to a meal.

For the communion worship service:

1. Click on the correct link.
2. Close the Open zoom.us? box and click join from your browser link
3. You may need the meeting password
4. Enter your name (e.g., Catherine M.)
5. You'll enter into a waiting room and I'll let you in from there.
6. Once you are admitted to the virtual meeting room, you'll see a screen with two audio options.
7. Click the Join Audio by Computer button.
8. Use the microphone button to toggle mute/unmute on your screen. Similarly use the camera button to toggle video on your video display.
9. Once you're in the meeting, I need to unmute you for the first time.
10. You may exit the meeting by clicking Leave Meeting in the bottom right of the screen. Otherwise, you'll be disconnected from Zoom when the host concludes the meeting.

Also...once you're in the meeting, if we cannot hear you, there's a 'Chat' feature we can use to converse should you not be able to hear or if we're not able to hear you.

You can also dial into the meeting by calling one of the numbers below and then entering the meeting number and the password.
